A YEAR AT G. H. S.

The Date — June 20, 1950

The Time — One half hour before graduation.

The Place — Greenfield High School

The Characters — Bill Green and Jim White, two members of the class of 1950.

BILL Hi, Jim. Well, are you ready for the big event?

JIM I certainly am. Gee, where's the time gone? It seems only yesterday that I entered G. H. S. as a full-fledged senior.

BILL I feel that way too. Remember Mr. Watt standing just inside the doorway to welcome his little ones back into the fold?

JIM How could anyone forget him? I can also see a choice portion of his "little ones" exercising their heads off that same afternoon up at Veterans' Memorial Field.

Robert Burniski

Edwin Allen

BILL You mean the football squad, of course. Boy, they certainly put up a battle this year. "Nook" and "Sonny" really made names for themselves during the season.

JIM Somebody told me that 1949 was an off-year for elections. It didn't seem that way at G. H. S. Almost before we knew it, we had elected our class officers.

BILL Let's see, we had James Stamatopoulos, president; Betty Drew, vice-president; Barbara Allen, secretary; and Stanley Doore, treasurer.

JIM Speaking of Stan, I hear the class has finally paid all their dues. Stan kept telling Mr. Lovett all along that the inevitable day would arrive sooner or later. It turned out to be later.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

HI-Y OFFICERS

JIM Say, Bill, don't forget the other elections that took place. First of all we elected our homeroom chairmen:

Room 14	Donald Cardwell
" 15	Stanley Doore
" 18	William Hawkins
" 24	Phyllis Rogalski
" 25	Janice Townsend

BILL That's right. Let's not forget their assistants, though.

Their work was just as important:

Room 14	Betty Babcock
" 15	John Fiske
" 18	Joseph Johnson
" 24	Katherine Mastaler
" 25	Karlene Sachse

JIM Quite a few of our clubs got underway soon also. For example, the Hi-Y organization lost no time in electing James Stamatopoulos, president; Richard Stone, vice-president; Stanley Doore, secretary; Richard Sautter, treasurer; and Paul Burdick, chaplin.

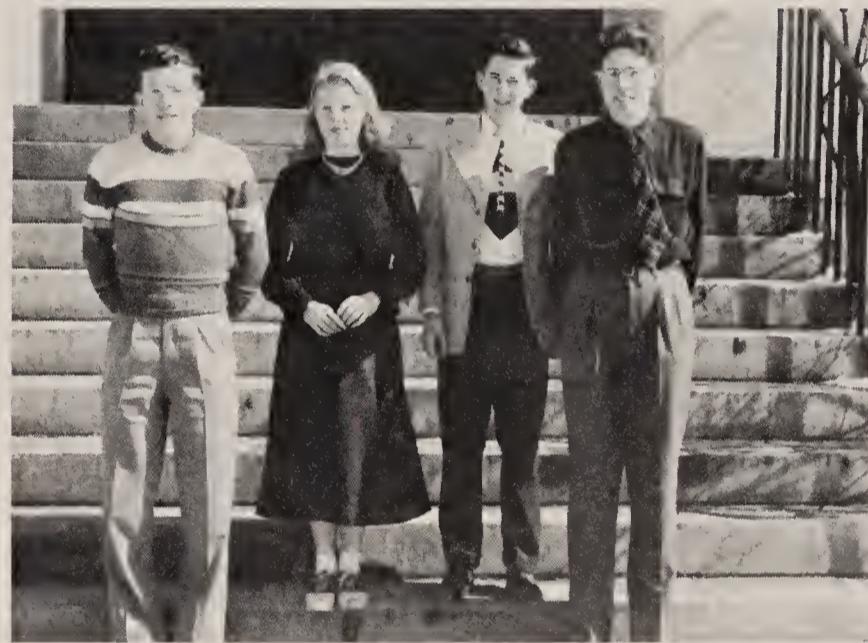

BILL The Camera Club began anew this year under the direction of Mr. Weymouth. In a very short time they elected Rosemary Paradis, president; William Ostroski, vice-president; Jean Rivard, secretary; Annabelle Paradis, treasurer.

Jane Crepeau, program

BILL I think we've left out one of the most important organizations in school — the Student Council.
JIM You're right. We mustn't forget them. Jim Stamatopoulos followed in brother Steve's footsteps and was elected president. Other officers were Riella Emery, vice-president; Ellen Erisman, secretary; Edward Keller, ass't treasurer.

STUDENT COUNCIL OFFICERS

BILL While we were busy during the daylight hours here at G. H. S., many other activities were taking place in the evening — night classes, P. T. A. meetings, club activities, and play rehearsals. Why, practically any night the place was really "lit up."

JIM Of course, Bill, G. H. S. wasn't the only busy place during the evenings. Some students decided to partake of the homey atmosphere of Carl's or decided to "view the town" from Poet's Seat Tower.

JIM You mentioned something about play rehearsals. Were you, by any chance, referring to the Senior play?

BILL Nothing but. I just happen to have with me a short article about that mammoth production. Would you like to see it?

JIM Why not?

"Meet Me in St. Louis," a comedy of family life in 1904, was presented by the Senior Class to a near-capacity audience on the evenings of the eighteenth and nineteenth of November. Jane Crepeau and Edward Keller starred as Mr. and Mrs. Smith, the parents of a typical St. Louis family of the period.

The play is based on the family's desire to prevent their father from moving to a New York branch office. One of the main reasons for this desire is the forthcoming Worlds Fair, an event which has been anticipated for many years.

The climax of the play is reached at the time when the girls half-drown Mr. Dodge, the boss, with bags of water. Outraged, Mr. Dodge fires the bewildered Mr. Smith.

In a fast-moving conclusion Mr. Dodge discovers that the office cannot be managed without Mr. Smith's help. Therefore, the latter is rehired and permitted to remain in St. Louis—with a raise in salary.

The cast included the following:

Mr. Smith	Edward Keller
Mrs. Smith	Jane Crepeau
Lon	Bernard Ethier
Tootie	Dorothy Crimmings
Grandpa	Joseph Johnson
Katie	Eleanor Davenport
Esther	Shirley Laperitis
Rose	Mary T. Hanley
Mrs. Waughop	Claire Barrett
Ida Boothly	Mary Carroll
Fred Gregory	John Alex
Agnes	Theresa Bergeron
John Shepherd	Stanley Doore
Lucille	Betty Arnesen
Mr. Dodge	Robert Thrasher
Duffy	James Phippard
Conductor	John Fiske

The play was directed by Mr. William L. Hubbard.

Back row: J. Phippard, B. Ethier, S. Doore, J. Johnson, R. Thrasher, E. Keller, J. Fiske.

JIM That was certainly an event to be long-remembered. What's next on the list?

BILL I hate to admit it, but our Green Wave were not winning quite all their games this year. Therefore, our dear, frail cheerleaders tried their skill at the game during the annual Turkey-Day classic.

JIM Both Greenfield and Turners Falls put on one of their best demonstrations in many years at half time.

BILL While we're on the subject of football, we can't forget the annual Football Banquet. Remember when Johnny Joslyn received his letter? He certainly deserved it!

JIM A little later Stan Benjamin had to put in his two-cents worth. It seems that someone thought he looked young for his age.

Left to right: Mr. Watt, Mr. Nichols, John Joslyn

JIM We've been talking so much about football that we've forgotten about our second major sport — basketball. Let's talk about that for a while.

BILL Who wants to talk about it!

JIM Oh, come now. The season wasn't as bad as all that. Still, I must admit that Danny Dyer had his moments of despair.

Janice Hendrick
and Phyllis Rogalski

BILL Let's change to a more pleasant subject. I hear that Phyllis Rogalski and Janice Hendrick led the girls' basketball team to a host of victories.

JIM The girls get all the breaks!

BILL I wouldn't call it all luck. The "Green Lassies" really had a mighty fine team

BILL In fact, I think both the boys' and girls' basketball teams should be complimented for their hard, clean play in all games — win or lose.

JIM I recall that there was a slight pause in all this athletic activity for something called mid-year exams.

BILL Why spoil our graduation talking about mid-year exams!

JIM Well, we were discussing the year's events. You've got to admit exams were an "event", to say the least.

BILL Still, I don't suppose many students studied any harder than usual.

JIM Oh no? Look at this picture I took the day before exams.

BILL Of course, a few fortunate souls survived their mid-years to the extent that they were admitted as members of the Pro Merito honor society.

JIM If only I had brains!

Standing: Bernard Ethier, Edward Keller, Maryanne Rogerson, Robert Thrasher, Joseph Johnson, James Phippard.

BILL Say, we mustn't leave out the fact that the 1950 edition of the "Emerald" had gotten underway by this time. I saw a copy yesterday; I certainly feel it is one of the best yet.

JIM Maybe so, but I'm not going to compare it with last year's book until the results are published. If we do as well as last year's class, we can feel mighty proud!

BILL Let's see. Bob Thrasher took over as editor-in-chief, assisted by Jane Crepeau, James Phippard, and Joe Johnson. Photography editor was Pat Meech; Bernard Ethier took charge of the art work; Ed Keller and Maryanne Rogerson handled the sports; and Louise Richardson took care of the advertising. Business arrangements were handled by Eleanor Davenport.

JIM That's right; but you've got to give a lot of credit to Mr. Lovett, Mr. Hubbard, and all the others who helped out in any way.

BILL I want to add that the art department deserves a good deal of appreciation and praise for constructing a model stage which so resembled our re-decorated stage in the auditorium.

JIM While we're on the subject of the yearbook, who got their names and pictures in "Who's Who" this year?

BILL There's a copy of the "Emerald" on the table. Open it to pages 60 and 61.

BILL I certainly wish we could talk over some more events of the past year. I didn't realize so much had happened.

JIM We've still got a couple of minutes left before the final event. What did you think of the class history, will, and prophecy?

BILL They were very good. Do you happen to know where I could get a copy of them?

JIM Just look in the Senior Edition of the "Exponent." You'll find everything there.

JIM The class certainly picked a wide selection of students. I voted for most of them myself.

BILL Well, I guess it's about time to go. I certainly don't want to be late tonight.

JIM Sometimes I'm really sorry that it's all over. You probably feel the same way, don't you?

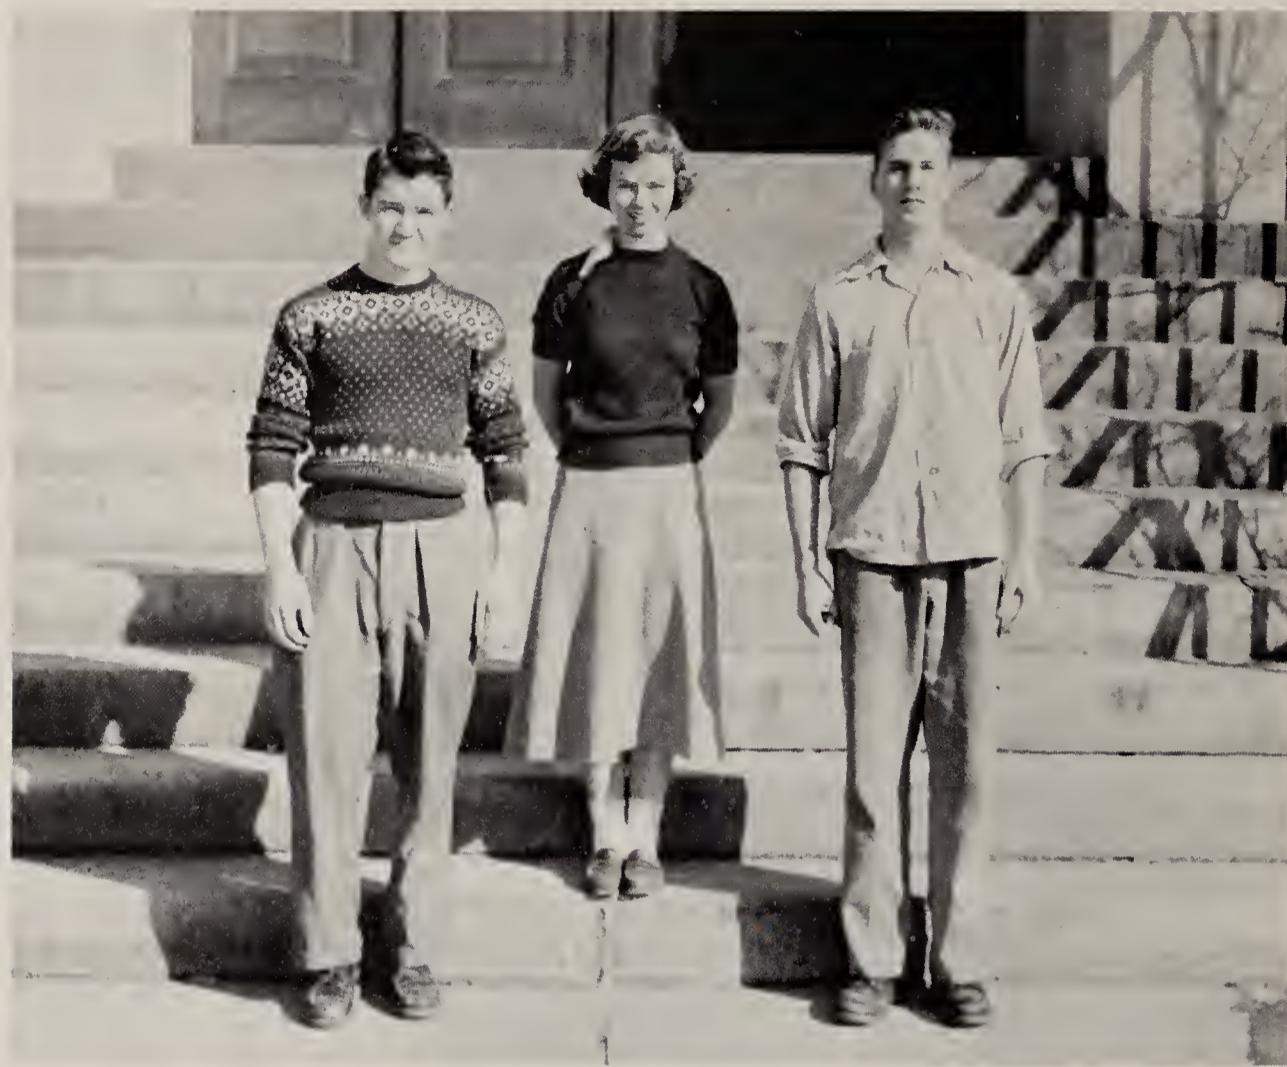

BILL I suppose I might as well confess I do. I've passed some of the happiest days of my life here at G. H. S.

The Student Council, expressing its ever-increasing hand in school affairs, showed a great vitality in its meetings.

Many issues were discussed by the council, some routine, some controversial. The topics included rules for dances, and selling cokes at basketball games.

Today the Student Council has become more active in guiding the affairs of Greenfield High School.

Greenfield High School can well be proud of this year's cheering squad, for the vigor displayed by the cheerleaders was only dominated by the showing of good sportsmanship. Under the leadership of Riella Emery, a veteran of two years, the squad will always be remembered for the splendid performances given at the home and out-of-town games. Teamwork, willingness, co-operation — these three exemplify the spirit of "1950" cheerleaders.

FACULTY ADVISER

Mr. William Hubbard

The staff has done much to raise the standard of the "Exponent." The editors tried to anticipate such events as would be of interest to the readers and have shown their ability through the presentation of a wide range of informative material.

Ronald Hall, a junior, assumed the responsibility of publishing the "April Fool" and "Junior Edition" of the paper.

The Forum chose for its theme "The United Nations." It was decided at the beginning of the year that, although this would be a guide to topics for the year, it would not be binding. Accordingly, the first speaker was Mr. Paul Pirmou, who spoke on "Russia — Yesterday and Today." Later on in the year, William Center spoke on Japan, and Herbert Darling talked on our town government. Later a group of foreign students addressed the club.

Perhaps the most significant activity of Hi-Y during the year was the establishment of a scholarship fund. The fund, known as the Benjamin C. L. Sander Scholarship Fund, will be an annual award of one hundred dollars to a deserving student. As in the last twenty six years, Hi-Y again sponsored the dance at commencement. The members also sold programs at sports events, gave money to several charities, and sponsored programs in assembly. A basketball team provided recreation and enjoyment for all.

Although crippled by injuries and lack of experience, the Greenfield High School football team managed to eke out a record of five wins and five losses. Sparked by "Sonny" Allen, "Nook" Burniske, "Jim" Stamatopoulos, and "Johnny" Joslyn, the fellows won four out of the first five games.

In the first game of the season, they defeated a strong Pittsfield team 20-13. The next game showed Drury getting spanked 20-7. The first loss was team 19-0. The team out Chicopee 14-13.

Although "Sonny" "Johnny" Joslyn, and jured at Northampton, on extra points 21-18. these fellows, the team 26-13 but regained roughly trounced One-Westfield, particularly defeated the boys 31-0

The Turkey Day classic, played at Turners Falls this year, saw the fellows lose to a more experienced and highly-favored Turners eleven. Mr. Porter, Superintendent of Schools, predicted that the weather would be warm. For the first time in many years he was wrong. It was cold!! However, the near-freezing temperature did not take away the excitement that always accompanies this annual game. Of course, it is too bad the boys lost, but they couldn't have lost to a better team.

A feature of this year's team was the sophomore backfield, composed of "Charlie" Harris at quarterback, "Moose" Godzinski and "Dick" Wandeloski at halfbacks, and "Jack" Taylor at fullback. They showed great promise of becoming the "four horsemen" of G. H. S.

Another feature of the games was the screen pass. If the quarterback didn't score on that play, he came very close to doing so. It still can't be understood why this play was not used in the Thanksgiving Day game.

Outstanding members of the team in their special fields were "Johnny" Joslyn and "Nook" Burniske at savage defensive playing, "Sonny" Allen at punting, "Charlie" Harris at long passing, "Jim" Stamas at line-plunging, and "Bill" Lewis at kicking points after touchdown.

With the absence of but one varsity starter, Dick Sautter, Danny Dyer's hoopsters lost all Valley League games except the opener against Northampton. The varsity, sorely needing Captain Johnny Joslyn, who was out because of an injured heel, defeated the Alumni and also the strong (??), clean-playing (???) Faculty Team. In top form for the faculty were "Bay-window" Benjamin and "Second-story" Sautter. The varsity lost to a fast Mount Hermon quintet in the annual Varsity Night game.

However, the team entered the small schools tourney at U. of M., where they defeated Bartlett High School of Webster but lost to Drury of Adams in the final game.

The junior varsity had a somewhat successful season. They defeated several other strong junior varsity teams in the league. It is predicted that Danny Dyer will have a championship team in the next few years.

With two varsity pitchers in, Tom Ryan and "Hunsie" Grader, Stan Benjamin looked forward to a successful season. Also returning to the team were infielders Ray Dykes and Jim Stamatopoulos. Two former pitchers were converted to infielders, Dick Shattuck to catcher and Mickey Turner to shortstop. Returning to the outfield were Stan Doore and Johnny Joslyn. Johnny Musiak looked like a veteran at second base.

On a muddy, puddle-filled track, the track squad again lost to Turners Falls, 45-41. The 880 relay was once more the event that caused the downfall of the hard-fighting Greenfield track team. G.H.S., however, garnered five first-place medals. The shot put and the discus medals were won by Sonny Allen; the broad jump and the 440-yard dash medals were awarded to Ed Keller; the medal for the high jump went to Jimmy Harris. The team took all three places in the broad jump, as did Turners Falls in the half mile.

With several new candidates out for track this spring, Coach George Georgerian had a successful spring season.

Meets were scheduled with Drury and Westfield, and a triangular meet was scheduled with Holyoke and Westfield.

Mr. Georgerian entered the squad in the University of Massachusetts relays on May 6 and in the Western Massachusetts track meet on May 27.

With a nucleus of veterans like Sonny Allen, Jim Harris, and Ed Keller the team represented G. H. S. well at these contests.

To prove the fact that softball is easily one of the most popular girls' sports in the high school, fifty girls tried out for the team. This year the team consisted of thirty players captained by Alice Hume with Maryanne Rogerson as senior manager and Pat Murley as assistant manager. The veterans returning this year were Alice Hume, Betty Babcock, Phyllis Babcock, Mary L. Hanley, Peggy Dedinas, Dolores Kestyn, Mary Lou McHugh, Marilyn Bristol, Joanne Brezinski, Phyllis Rogalski, Riella Emery, Anne McGuane, Ann Beaumont, and Marilyn Barisse.

With their first game in Keene, N. H., the girls started the season in a dismal fashion by losing 6-0. Arlene Ellis, fullback, and Betty Babcock and Marilyn Barrise, half-backs, were outstanding on the defense, but were unable to stop the aggressive opponents.

Although showing vast improvement, the Greenies bowed 3-2 to Gardner High School. Shiela Hayes, inner, scored in the second half to knot the score 1-1. Phyllis Rogalski scored the second goal with a pass from "Beaver" Beaumont.

Keene's return trip to Greenfield resulted in a hard fought, scoreless tie and an injury to Captain Maryanne Rogerson. Mary Lou McHugh, goalie, and Anne McGuane, halfback, were outstanding on the defense, while Barbara Clifford and Riella Emery were the offensive standouts.

The girls wound up the season with a 2-0 victory over Gardner. Cynthia Holman scored the first goal on a spectacular pass from Ellen Erisman. Hellen Berry scored the second goal.

The team was coached by Miss Phyllis Schneider and was managed by Janice Townsend.

The Jayvee field hockey team had an undefeated season. The opener against Keene, N.H., gave the J.V.'s a scoreless tie. Joan Hayes and Joan Schatz were the standouts of the game.

At Gardner the team came through with a 1-0 win. Sue Hoadley cleverly eluded the Gardner defense to score the only goal of the game. Rosemary O'Hara, Joanne Brzezinski and Dianne Rood broke up many Gardner plays.

The return visit of Keene saw the J. V.'s edge Keene 1-0. Phyllis Babcock banged one past the goalie to give the Greenies the lead. Halfbacks, Betty Clark, Marilyn Bristol and Barbara Allen starred defensively for the victors.

Gardner's return bout with Greenfield gave the Green Wave another 1-0 win. Gail Beaumont scored the lone goal early in the last half. Mary Jo McNicholas and Susan Gortner issued many a threat to the opposition. Betty Johnson received the honors on the defense, stopping all threats made by the losers.

The only veterans brought back from the previous year were Phyllis Rogalski, Maryanne Rogerson, Janice Townsend, and Janice Hendick. Mary L. Hanley and Kate Mastaler scored consistently throughout the season; while Joanne Brzezinski, Sheila McDonough, Riella Emery, and Mary Jo Mc-Nicholas gave able assistance.

Sue Hoadley proved herself a capable manager by keeping records of all the games.

The J. V. had a rather successful season with 6 wins and 9 losses. Franny Gardner and Barbara Clifford showed great potentialities for next year's varsity. Eleanor Smith, Barbara Davis, and Betty Hume excelled in the back-court. Betty Clark, Joan Hayes, Rosemarie Paradis, and Marilyn Bristol were outstanding in all-around play.

Rosemary O'Hara did an excellent job in keeping the score accurately.

NORTHAMPTON COMMERCIAL COLLEGE

“The School of Thoroughness”

We have prepared young people during a period of more than half a century for successful careers in business, educational, and professional offices as secretaries, executive assistants, and junior executives.

Graduates of Greenfield High School have contributed to our reputation and in so doing have brought credit upon themselves and their Alma Mater.

GOING TO COLLEGE?

The country and the community need college trained men and women to lead the coming generations.

at AMERICAN INTERNATIONAL COLLEGE

you are offered . . .

1. A well-rounded educational institution, established in 1885, with a present enrollment of more than 1,300 full-time students. American International College is co-educational and non-sectarian. It is one of the most rapidly growing institutions of higher learning in New England.
2. A chance to continue your education among former friends and classmates.
3. A college recognized by the American Council on Education, the American Medical Association, and the Board of Regents of the state of New York.
4. The home of the Model Congress — a popular feature which annually attracts high school students from all over New England.
5. The opportunity to get your degree while living at home. The amount saved can be applied toward graduate work or for starting in a business.
6. A good chance for a scholarship. Some high ranking students will be awarded scholarships if recommended by their principals.
7. No quota system.
